The Deep End - Called to 'come to our senses'

The three parables of things lost and found emphasize the unending forgiveness of God, and God's rejoicing for those who return. In each of the situations there is a frantic search for that which is lost and a huge celebration when the lost is found. In the parable of the Lost Son there is much to reflect on. We hear that the younger brother eventually 'came to his senses.' We might pray today that God show us the aspects of our lives in which we also need to come to our senses.

In this Season of Creation, we lament the destruction of God's creation, we reflect on the loss of bio-diversity and the loss of human life caused by climate change. We pray that as a global community we might, like the lost son, 'come to our senses' and take the actions that are necessary to change course. It all seems so huge and perhaps we feel there is nothing significant we can do. That is not the case. As parishes, we can lead by example and show our commitment to care for the earth. The future of our environment depends on the action we take now as a society. As with all significant change, it begins with the grassroots.

'I wish to address every person living on this planet...to enter into dialogue with all people about our common home...The climate is a common good, belonging to all and meant for all.' (Laudato Si' 3,23)

Suggestion for the week: Can you encourage your family to make small changes in the home, such as ensuring all waste is correctly recycled, composting, encouraging one another to use public transport or walk/cycle when possible? We start with ourselves.

HOME MISSION SUNDAY

This coming Sunday, 15th September, the Catholic Church in England and Wales celebrates Home Mission Sunday, when we are encouraged to take to heart the invitation to 'Rejoice with me', as through prayer and action we invite those who are close to us to come closer to Jesus – helping them to find what was lost.

WATCH!

BBC TWO- Pope Francis- Friday 20th September 9:00pm-10:00pm.

Watch out for a series which has been given access to Pope Francis and some of the highest ranking officials to the choristers of the Sistine Chapel and the papal gardener.

The series will give an insight into the lives of those who live and work in this independent City State which is the Vatican. The 1st of the two episodes will air on BBC Two on Friday September 20 between 9-10pm. Filmed during Pope Francis’ 5th year in office, the series also charts a time of change as he introduce reforms, “shakes up the clerical establishment” and deals with the fallout of a sex abuse scandal that re-surges just as the Pope embarks on a historic visit to Ireland.

The first episode follows the build up to Easter. As Easter draws near, the Sanpietrini-skilled craftsmen responsible for the upkeep of St. Peter’s Basilica – are hard at work. For them this is not a routine job, but a tradition that has been passed down from the original craftsmen who built St. Peter’s, the most important Church in the Catholic world. The Vatican gardener’s also have the key role to play, preparing the olive branches to decorate St. Peter’s Square and palm leaves to adorn the columns of the Basilica.

Meanwhile the Vatican Police Force makes stringent security checks in anticipation of the arrival of tens of thousands of pilgrims. Ever since the assassination attempt of Pope John Paul II in 1981, security has been stepped up, and because this Pope prizes his spontaneity he presents a challenge for his security team.

Also preparing for Easter is Mark Spyropoulos, the first Englishman to sing in the Sistine Chapel since the Reformation. Mark has a very special responsibility: on Easter Sunday he must stand up in St. Peter’s and sing solos for Pope Francis and worldwide TV audience of many millions. Happy viewing!

(Fr. Pat Brown)

Christ is the hope of the world: His Gospel is the most powerful leaven of brotherhood, freedom, justice and peace for all peoples. – Pope Francis

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel Luke 15:1-32

1. There are three figures in the story of the Prodigal Son. The father is a symbol of an unconditional love. Perhaps you can recall someone showing love to you in a way that showed great forgiveness and acceptance. Have there been times when you have also loved in this way?

2. You may be able to identify with the younger son at different stages of his journey. Be sure to follow it to the point where it becomes a good news story for you – when you ‘came to yourself.’ Where and when have you experienced a homecoming after a time of exile and alienation.

3. Do not neglect the older son. In contrast to his father he was very judgemental and resentful towards his younger brother. Perhaps you have experienced these attitudes in others towards you, or in yourself towards others. What were those experiences like for you? What did they teach you?

The choir is looking for new members to join us.

All you need is a love for music and a love for our Lord.

Come up to us after 11:00 am Mass and introduce yourself, we would be delighted to meet you.

We practise on Thursdays at 8:30pm in the Parish house.
