The Deep End • Live Laudato Si'

This week marks the fifth anniversary of the publication of Pope Francis' encyclical on Care for Our Common Home. Catholic communities worldwide have been asked to celebrate Laudato Si' Week in some way from 16 to 24 May. Laudato Si is a beautiful document, inspired by the words of St Francis of Assisi, 'Praise be to you, my Lord, through our Sister, Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with coloured flowers and herbs.' In this document, Pope Francis asks us to listen to the cry of the earth, to really awaken to what is happening to God's creation. We live in extraordinary times, where vast ecosystems are being destroyed and global warming poses a threat to life, all due to human activity. Young people are calling on us to take action in order to ensure a sustainable future for all. In Laudato Si', Pope Francis says that this environmental crisis is, in reality, a spiritual crisis, because we have forgotten who we are and where we come from. We need a conversion of heart where our relationship with nature is concerned. He invites us to re-awaken a child-like sense of awe and wonder and to remember that 'the entire material universe speaks of God's love... soil, water, mountains: everything is a caress of God' (LS 84). In today's Gospel, Jesus says: 'This is the Spirit of truth... He abides with you and He will be in you.' Let us begin again to see God present within ourselves, in others and in all of creation. We start here, for we will only protect what we love. How will you celebrate Laudato Si' week this week in your home and in your parish community? Spend time in nature, plant a tree, read Laudato Si'...

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
