The Deep End - "Talitha Cum"

In today's Gospel we hear two healing stories: Jairus' daughter and the woman with a haemorrhage. At first glance these stories might not seem to have a lot in common. The woman is a complete social outcast because of her condition, yet Jesus calls her 'daughter'. He does not let social convention dictate who can be called a child of God. Jesus reminds the people of this woman's true identity. The synagogue official surprises us, pleasantly, with his faith in Jesus and his message. What these two characters have in common is faith against all the odds as they reach out to Jesus in faith-filled action. There are those in the story who laugh when Jesus says he can bring back Jairus' daughter. They are sent away. Jesus' healing breaks down the barriers that isolate us from one another and from God. We can all recall times when we were struggling. We needed something to move us, to help us forgive, to help us walk away or to relieve us of physical pain. In the end it can be the simple gestures that save us: a kind word, someone praying for us, a gentle touch or we reach out to someone and like the woman with the hemorrhage we suddenly feel within ourselves that we are healing. These accounts show us something of how God's grace can enter our lives and transform situations. Mark leaves untranslated Jesus' native language when he restores the young girl to life: 'Talitha cum' – a beautiful phrase meaning: 'Little girl, get up!'. Jairus' daughter has been given new life; the woman has also been given new life. Both have overcome barriers that were keeping them from being free. We know what those barriers are for each of us. God's grace is gentle yet can bring life to situations of death. What do you need healing from today? Bring this to prayer.

PETER'S PENCE – There will be a retiring collection next Sunday for Peter's Pence which is the charity supported by Pope Francis and follows the feast of St Peter, Prince of Apostles and Patron of the Diocese on Tuesday 29th June.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

1. The symbolic gesture of breaking and sharing bread and sharing the cup, that Jesus made at the Last Supper, symbolised the offering of himself that he would make on Calvary, giving his life for others. Sometimes we also are called to give our lives for others. We can do this grudgingly or with a generous heart. What difference has it made for you when you were able to give yourself freely?

2. In his encyclical letter Deus Caritas Est Pope Benedict XVI wrote, 'A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is essentially fragmented'. What has helped you to be aware of the importance of the link between the Eucharist and your lifestyle?

3. Jesus involved his disciples both in the preparation for the Last Supper and in its celebration. Recall times when you had a heightened awareness of participation and involvement in the Mass. What helped to give you this awareness? Are there lessons from these special experiences that you can bring with you to the routine Sunday Mass?

Volunteers are always welcome:

If you have some spare time, we are always in need of volunteers to clean the church, DIY to help in change light bulbs, a little team who could come and help Fr Gideon with the 'greening' and maintaining the garden in the courtyard. It is very therapeutic and rewarding to do. If you are interested please inform the parish office or email holloway@rcdow.org.uk.

"World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly" 25th July 2021 – Pope Francis, in his long address to "dear Grandfathers and Grandmothers" and "dear Elderly Friends, he assures older people that the "Church is close" to them and does want to resign itself to the solitude that affects them. Writing as "an elderly person like yourselves", the Pope says God is not indifferent to the "solitude" of older people. He acknowledges that loneliness has even more acute during these times of pandemic. "I am well aware that this Message comes to you at a difficult time: the pandemic swept down on us like an unexpected and furious storm; it has been a time of trial for everyone, but especially for us elderly persons," he writes.
