The Deep End - Take a break

We all need a break sometimes. I remember once reading a selection of entries for a Mothers' Day competition, in which people were asked why their mother deserved to win a prize. They all had themes in common - she never does anything for herself; she's always thinking of other people; I can't remember the last time she took a break.

In today's Gospel, the disciples need a break. They have returned from their mission, eager to catch up with Jesus, but there is so much happening that they barely have time to eat. Jesus sees their need, and invites them to take a boat with him to a quiet place and rest for a while. But there is no time for rest, as the crowds have followed them on foot. Jesus is moved by them because they are 'like sheep without a shepherd'. He is the Good Shepherd who always cares for his flock, and he responds with compassion and love.

No doubt the disciples are drafted in to help: it turns out it is not break time! We can imagine their exhaustion. We all feel tired or overwhelmed from time to time, from work or family pressures or simply trying to balance everything. Postponing our own needs to care for others is familiar to every parent or caregiver. We don't know if the disciples got a rest at that point, but we know that Jesus valued time apart as he later sends the disciples off in the boat again while he goes away by himself to pray. In the chaos of life, even when there are demands on our time and energy, it is important to take some time to reflect and to pray.

HAVE A LOVELY SUMMER

I will be away next weekend and the next. Elizabeth will be away from the beginning of August. Fr. Elizabeth and I can deal with your queries if you can email them to holloway@rcdow.org.uk. Have a lovely summer and I will see you all when I get back in August. Fr Gideon

Covid-19 Route Map: Step 4. Procedures at Church after 19th July

We have now received some guidance in the forms of recommendations and with some rules too. We want to continue however, to keep the church safe and make people comfortable while recognising their personal responsibility. This would mean that the tapes/ribbons around the church and benches will be removed and we can have fuller Mass attendance again.

- You should not come to church if you have any symptoms, or if you are self-isolating.
- The wearing of masks is encouraged, especially when the church is full.
- Hand sanitisers will be kept in vantage points for those who want to continue to use them.
- Social distancing will be relaxed, but please be respectful of those who may want to continue to keep a distance.

For the time being the following things remain suspended until further guidance: Communion from the chalice, Offertory procession, the physical sign of peace, Holy Water in the stoups, The Offertory collection will continue by not passing the bags, however, using contactless card (see below) instead of cash is now being encouraged.

I would like to take this opportunity to say THANK YOU to the team of Stewards we have had in the three weekend Masses, weekday Masses and during Funerals and Weddings. Their presence were necessary to keep us safe.

CONTACTLESS DONATIONS:

"We don't normally carry cash nowadays!" It is finally here. We are pleased to introduce a contactless payments terminal for weekly or one-off donations. It is situated at the entrance of the church. The system has been approved and trialled by the Diocese and is designed to offer an alternative to loose plate donations. Donation which will be linked to your payment and will gift aid all future donations made using the same method. Please refrain from using this system if you are already in planned giving via Standing Order or Weekly envelopes except for one-off donations.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

1. The apostles reported to Jesus all that they had done and taught. Perhaps you have had the experience of being able to check in with somebody and share an experience. What was that like for you?
2. Jesus saw that the apostles needed to rest and eat. What has been your experience of finding a restful place after a busy day? What kind of nourishment have you found necessary in order to maintain energy and enthusiasm? Did your experience during the Covid19 pandemic give you any new insights about this?
3. When Jesus saw the crowd, he recognised their need and reached out to them. Who has been a Jesus person for you, someone who recognised your need and reached out to you? For whom have you been a Jesus person in that way?
4. It sometimes can be difficult to strike a balance between responding to the needs of others and meeting our need for rest and nourishment. What has helped you to keep the balance right?

Calling for New Catechists

Everyone is encouraged to prayerfully consider becoming a Catechist. Without the help of Catechists we cannot pass on our faith to the future of our Catholic faith...our children. Not only will you help share our faith and your love of God, you might be surprised to find that you will learn and grow in your faith just as much as the students.

Please contact us to express your interest. holloway@rcdow.org.uk or contact Elizabeth in the office.

Volunteers are always welcome:

If you have some spare time, we are always in need of volunteers to clean the church, to arrange flowers, someone to help change light bulbs and DIY. If you are interested please inform the parish office or email holloway@rcdow.org.uk.
