Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel

John Byrne OSA@Intercom

1. Jesus sent out his disciples on a mission to let people know 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' Recall when you have reached out to another in word or in deed to help them realize that they were cherished, perhaps by a word of sympathy or encouragement, or by giving a hand with a difficult task. What was it like for you to experience yourself as a person bringing help and encouragement to another?

2.Recent events (Covid pandemic, the war in Ukraine, and poverty and famine in some countries) have created situations of dire need for some. These crises have also brought out great generosity as people reached out in caring for the sick and refugees and contributing money when they could. Perhaps there are individuals or groups that have particularly inspired you. Remember them and ask God's blessing on them.

3.Jesus sent the disciples out two by two. When have you found it beneficial not to be working alone, but with another by your side? How did companionship change the experience? What you were able to achieve together that you could not have done on your own?

4.When the disciples returned Jesus warned them not to focus on the thrill of what they had been able to achieve. It was more important that their 'names are written in heaven'. Sometimes we also need reminders that who we are is more important than what we do. Who have been the people who brought this home to you? Have there been experiences that helped you to appreciate this?

NEXT SUNDAY

We celebrate SEA SUNDAY on 10th July when we pray for seafarers and fishers, and thank them for the vital role they play in all our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. In the last year more crews have been abandoned by their employers than ever before.

Stella Maris is the maritime agency of the Catholic Church. Its team of chaplains provide practical help and pastoral care to seafarers and fishers in the UK and around the world (majority of them are Catholics) so that they will always have a friend in port who they can turn to. Please support Sea Sunday by praying for our seafarers and giving online or to the second collection at Mass. Thank you very much.

CONTACTLESS DONATIONS:

We now have two machines, at the entrance and by the baptismal font near St Peter's statue.

This donation method has proved to be easy and safe, and it is practical, as we don't normally carry cash nowadays. If you give your Sunday offering using the contactless machine at the entrance of the church, please gift aid your offering if you're a taxpayer. You can take a photo on the QR code displayed in the machine – you can then fill in the online form at home. At no extra cost to yourself, this will increase your donation by 25%.

Weekly Afternoon Companion Needed

Looking for somebody willing to visit my dad to offer him a sense of friendship.

Dad is 85 and did a Bachelors degree in Social Sciences at the Open University in his late 70s. He came to the UK when he was 26 years old from Latin America but speaks perfect accent-free English.

He ran his own small company for many years and has a keen interest in aeroplanes, politics, languages (he speaks French) and the Christian faith.

Dad lives at Eden Grove London N7 8GP. He is mobile but walks slowly and benefits from walking aids.

Dad can also help anyone keen to learn or practise their Spanish.

His son Sebastian is happy to discuss providing some funding to the befriender for the visits.

Please/contact Sebastian on s.boo@lse.ac.uk or 07540 135189
