The Deep End • Peace Be With You

The word for peace in the Gospel today, Shalom, is more than a wish for a good evening. It is a deeper peace, a peace of mind, body and spirit. A peace that comes from a deep spiritual relationship with Christ. It is a peace that says, no matter what we face, we can remain rooted in something deeper. Over the past number months our lives have changed dramatically. At the beginning of 2020 one could scarcely imagine the historical events that were about to unfold across the world. A staggering death toll, half of the globe on lock down, airlines grounded, businesses closed, major sporting events cancelled. Many of us in that first week of social isolation were in shock, which turned to anxiety and fear. We experienced a collective grief as a human race as this new reality unfolded. One can imagine that same fear and disbelief that Jesus' followers endured during those days in Jerusalem following the crucifixion, their lives utterly changed forever. Yet our faith shows us that the tomb does not have the last word. The Easter story is a message of hope. It shows us that darkness will not always prevail, there will be a turning point, there will be light and renewal. Things will be different, yes. One does not emerge from a crisis unchanged. We have witnessed so many acts of that light during this crisis from the heroes on the front line, in good neighbours, in friends and family reaching out to one another. These rays of light remind us of Christ at work in this world, offering peace and love when everything seems hopeless. May we experience this deep peace Christ offers us in the Gospel today and may we carry that peace to others. Jane Mellett@Intercom

Cardinal Vincent has sent us all a message in preparation for Pentecost. Please take a moment to listen to it; <https://vimeo.com/421046273>

Preparing to Participate in a Live Stream Mass at Home

Here are tips to help you prepare for and fully participate in a virtual Mass:

Before Mass Begins:

Find a quiet place at home to set up your computer. We want to set the stage for prayer and reflection.

Dress appropriately. This helps show reverence and an understanding of the importance of the moment.

Be on time. Joining the live stream early will allow you to pray and prepare yourself better for Mass.

During Mass:

Participate in the Mass. Make the appropriate responses and follow the readings. No Food and Drinks. Just as we don't eat or drink in Church, the same stands for a virtual Mass.

Turn off cell phones or other devices. Distractions are not conducive to prayer.

Do not talk to others in your home during the Mass. Make this a time to visit with God, and visit with one another later.

After Mass: 0

Pray after Mass. If you feel called, offer a prayer of thanksgiving after Mass is over.

Make your Sunday Offertory online or by mail. During times like these, your regular Sunday Offertory is extremely important for your parish to continue the same programs and ministries when things return to normal. Go in peace to love and serve the Lord!

THE OFFERTORY COLLECTION

Despite the difficult circumstances for some individuals, some parishioners have been asking how they can continue to donate to the parish. Many people have asked for our Bank details as now there is no collection at Mass each week. You can make a one-off donation but we would really appreciate if you are someone who gives regularly, if you would take out a standing order with your Bank. Elizabeth can send you the form. Email us on holloway@rcdow.org.uk and we will send it to you.

The God who Speaks

Meditate

As we are experiencing at the moment, fear is our greatest enemy because it immobilises us and closes us in. on the contrary, the life of God within us, which we call Holy Spirit, opens doors and our own heart to others, hence making us share the message of the Gospel with those around us. Some of the walls we build around us are created by our sins, our judgments and resentments. Thus the first work of those who receive the Spirit of God is to forgive and reconcile.

Act

St. Francis prayed that he be an instrument of God's peace bringing peace, reconciliation and love to situations of hatred, discord and misunderstanding. See if any of such situations are present around you and try to amend it, through prayer or some practical action.*

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

July Mass Bookings- Masses for July can be booked by telephone or email. There are still some June Masses available for intentions.
