The Deep End • The face of Christ

There is great goodness in our country and in our world. This became clear when our communities were thrown into turmoil in recent months. Long before the official initiatives sprang into action to support those in need during the nationwide 'lockdown,' stories began to emerge of the ways in which communities were mobilising to make sure their most vulnerable members were looked after. Local supermarkets delivered goods, postmen and women checked in on the elderly, neighbours made phone calls and arranged to pick up groceries and prescriptions. Through it all, we began to realise how much we depend on each other. As the noise of everyday life fell silent, we began to ponder: what is it that makes us a community? Parishes were grappling with the same question. In the temporary absence of access to Mass and the sacraments, what makes us a community of disciples of Jesus? Every effort was made to reach out to parishioners, through online Masses, prayer initiatives and practical help and support. In every parish in the country, volunteers became the face of Christ to others. In today's Gospel, Jesus lays down the markers of the Christian community. His key points are welcome and compassion. When we reach out in a spirit of welcome and neighbourliness, when we give as little as a drink of water to another person, we are on the right path. In his Easter message, The Irish Archbishop Eamon Martin said: 'In our present situation we have seen the light of the risen Christ shine out... in the kindness shown by neighbour to neighbour and in gentle and simple acts of compassion carried out by countless "Good Samaritans." Despite the uncertainty, suffering and grief caused by the pandemic, the Lord is near.'

The Catholic Papers. (The Universe)

They are still being delivered here. We will put them outside the Church along with the Mass Sheet and Newsletter for each week. Please take your copy and if you want to give something for them when we all return.

RE-OPENING OF THE CHURCH ON 4TH-5TH JULY:

We thank God as churches throughout England and Wales begin to open for Mass, albeit full of restrictions.

It is vitally important that we all remember that we are not returning to how things were before lockdown. The COVID-19 virus is very much still around. We are still living with the pandemic. Needless to say, if you are sick or if you have an underlying condition, please do not come to church yet. While Catholics have an obligation to attend Sunday Mass every week, this obligation remains suspended by the Bishops during this pandemic.

There are a few things to do for those who will be attending Mass:

- You must wear face mask.
- There will be one entrance and one exit. Please follow the ushers instructions at all times.
- Please gel your hands at the entrance. The usher will direct you to your seat, probably not the usual one that you sit in. Please do not give them grief over this! Be understanding.
- Holy Communion will be under one kind only and in the hand. Approach the priest for Communion still with your mask on.
- You must keep social distancing at all times, on entry, at Communion time and at the end of Mass.
- There will be a Collection. We still have not figure out how to do this, but maybe as you come in by putting your donation in a box by the foot of the altar or at the back of church.
- Masses will be at usual times during the week at 9:15.
- Sunday Masses will be Sat. 6:00pm, 8:30 and 11:00 am.
- For those who cannot come on a Sunday, maybe come on a weekday Mass at 9:15.
- Please do not congregate outside of the church after Mass.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel Matthew 10:37-42

1. Jesus never wanted suffering for anyone but he knew that if anyone was going to follow in his footsteps, promoting love and respect for every person, they would meet with opposition. Fidelity has its price, but also its rewards. Would you agree?

2. The passage is a call to both radical and practical discipleship. When have you found that in order to achieve a certain objective you had to make it a priority, and then take the practical steps necessary to reach your goal? What were the benefits to you when you did this?

3. 'Hate' is prophetic exaggeration for the uncompromising loyalty Jesus seeks in disciples. There may be times when people make demands in conflict with fidelity to another relationship. This can be painful. When have you found that being clear about your priorities helped you in that situation? John Byrne OSA

Catholic Voices survey 'Coronavirus, Church & You'

Catholic Voices is collaborating with researchers as part of a major survey assessing responses to the Covid-19 crisis among Catholics in the UK.

This survey, which will form part of a wider survey of UK Christian responses to the present crisis, is intended to capture Catholic experience and help us understand it better. The survey takes the form of an online questionnaire and has already received 1,500 responses and will remain open till early July.

Any Catholic living in England, Wales can take part. Find out more about the survey at: <https://www.catholicvoices.org.uk/survey>

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
