Illegal Migration Bill

Caritas Bakhita House has signed a statement which calls the Illegal Migration Bill cruel, inhumane and unworkable, and a "charter for traffickers". Bishop Paul McAleenan has said "While we all wish to end dangerous Channel crossings, this new legislation treats migrants and refugees as a problem to be solved rather than brothers and sisters towards whom we have responsibilities."

This Bill is currently in the "ping-pong" stage, and was sent back to the House of Lords yesterday after the Commons rejected most of the amendments they proposed. Caritas Westminster, along with other charities including CAFOD and the Jesuit Refugee Service is asking people to urgently write to their MPs.

Parishioners can read more on our website here:
